LYNETTE ZUCH NAMED DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY OF NLRB'S ST. LOUIS REGIONAL OFFICE

Arthur F. Rosenfeld, General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, announced the appointment today of Lynette K. Zuch as Deputy Regional Attorney in the Agency's St. Louis, MO, Regional Office, Region 14.

A career NLRB employee, Ms. Zuch has served as a Supervisory Attorney since 2000. In her new position, she will assist Regional Director Ralph R. Tremain in the enforcement and administration of the National Labor Relations Act in Region 14, which encompasses eastern Missouri and portions of Illinois.

The National Labor Relations Act is a Federal law that regulates labor-management relations in the private sector. In enforcing this law, the NLRB conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates, prosecutes and remedies unfair labor practices committed by employers and unions.

Commenting on the appointment, General Counsel Rosenfeld remarked:

Throughout her career with the Agency, Lynette has demonstrated a strong commitment to the fair and vigorous enforcement of the Act. She has excellent analytical and litigation skills and has earned the respect of her colleagues and the trust of the labor relations community.

A native of Rice Lake, WI, Ms. Zuch is a 1974 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She started her career as a field examiner in 1976 in the St. Louis Regional Office. While working for the NLRB, she earned a M.B.A. from the University of Missouri-St. Louis in 1981 and a J.D. degree from St. Louis University in 1992. After receiving her law degree, Ms. Zuch became a field attorney.

Ms. Zuch and her husband Ric, who is a minister, reside in St. Charles, MO.
